Meet Robin Taney

Robin Taney's career path is like a patchwork quilt—squares in different patterns that when sewn together somehow work. She has been in broadcast news, corporate, nonprofit, event planning, internet marketing, and the tourism and hospitality industries. She has written, promoted, planned, and implemented as well as worked with community leaders, heads of corporations, small businesses and students.

In 2011, Robin Taney was laid off from her job doing PR for an internet marketing company. It was a blessing in disguise because the company was a toxic place to work. 2011 was a milestone year for her as she turned 50 and had a son who was starting kindergarten that fall. Starting her own business has been her dream for many years, but the catalyst was when the kindergarten enrollment forms arrived in the mail the same day as an invitation to join AARP! And so she needed to Get R.E.A.L.
